GRACE LUTHERAN CHURCH
October 25th –Reformation Sunday

SUNDAY MORNING

Welcome to Grace! We worship indoors with one service at 9:15 am by using certain safety protocols to care for each other. As attendance rises, we will consider returning to two services at 8 am and 10:30 am.

Find Grace Worship Online

Go online in any way (phone, tablet, or computer with any browser). Go to www.YouTube.com and search for: Grace Hatfield Services (posted each week on Wednesday following the Sunday, at noon). Find the lessons & prayers on Grace's website. Spread the word!

The Flowers on the altar are provided this week to the glory of God by Barbara Watts in honor of her birthday and by Harold Schaefer for the glory of God.

(Flower sponsors remember you can take your flowers with you! If you don't want them, please ask the Pastor if anybody else would like to take them).

For Sunday School: We're holding Sunday school by Zoom. It's so good to see each other! Contact Laura Slugg for your personal invite (pj's are ok)

We may be taking photos or video recordings during Grace Events. You will be giving your consent that any pictures and/or video taken may be published and/or distributed by Grace Lutheran Church (i.e. Facebook, website, promotional materials) by attending these events. Please let Pastor Peterman, or a Church Council member, know if you would prefer that you and/or your child's image not be used.

also lift their names before God when we gather for worship on Sunday, November 1st.

If you won't be in worship in person to write the names of your loved ones in the journal, you may send the names to the church office [graceassistant40@gmail.com] or call the office and leave a message [215-855-4676]. Please leave both the names you'd like included and your name and a contact phone number so we can get back to you to check spellings, if needed.

Newlyweds Michael MacDonald and Audrey Davis on their wedding day, October 4th in Lower Merion Botanical Park. They had a covid inspired ceremony conducted by the groom's sister, the honorable Anna MacDonald. Members and friends of Grace who might like to send a card should contact the Grace office for their address.

All Saints Journal

The All Saints journal is located in the rear of the sanctuary. You may add the names of loved ones outside of Grace who have been baptized, or have died, since last All Saints Sunday (11/3/19) through and including Sunday, October 25th.

The names of Grace members who have died within this year have been entered in the journal. There is space laid out for you to add the names of loved ones, that we may Soupathon is Back!

Now is the time to stock up on some delicious homemade soup for the winter months. On November 8th, they will have delicious quarts of soup - chicken noodle, meatless minestrone and split pea on sale for $7. You can preorder yours by filling out the form in the Narthex or give it to one of the Inreach Team members. They also are looking for soup makers - just register for what type of soup you will be making (please use the provided recipes), the number of quarts you will make and take the plastic quarts and bring it back on the 8th.

Warming Center Progress

As we move forward in the progress on the Warming Center, we need to develop Welcoming Guidelines as well as Welcoming Team. If you are interested in helping (in whatever capacity) please let Peggy know by next Sunday October 25th. Participants will receive a draft worksheet on important questions and a Zoom meeting will be arranged in order to encourage a wide participation.

Worship Servers Scheduling

For the foreseeable future, scheduling for all worship servers (lectors, ushers, communion assistants) will be done monthly. You will be contacted by email or a phone call to schedule.

The wine and bread for communion are prepared by members of the Altar Guild. They wear gloves to prepare these elements. Only plastic glasses will be used so that they can be disposed of after communion.
