From the Pastor: Coping with Christmas Stress

Hope, peace, joy, love: These are words our tradition associates with the coming of Christmas. But let's be honest. What is the stark reality of this season for many of us? How about stress, anxiety, isolation, or depression?

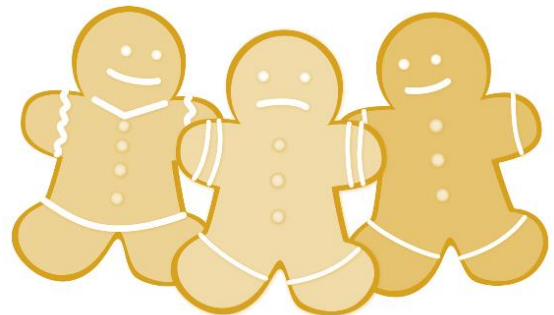

My intention is not to be a "Debbie downer" as we hear perky holiday tunes springing up all around us, but to offer you some tools to lead you through these weeks so that you can truly welcome the Christ child with open arms. Here are some ways to cope with the realities that we face.

Christmas gifts don't have to cost lots of money. Help someone with a task they can't do on their own. Bake a cake, walk a dog, offer to babysit. Pass along a book you have already read and loved. Won't it be special for someone to know you held and treasured that very book in your hands? Take someone to lunch. Plan a special night out or a holiday experience – a concert, a movie, even a walk or drive to see Christmas lights. The gift of your time is priceless.

Family tensions that already exist are going to resurface at holiday times, no getting around it. Partly this is because we have unrealistic expectations of coming together at Christmas as a happy family. First, appreciate that everyone is under stress to some degree as they are trying to get everything done. If tensions break out, try to identify what may be going on with that person. Ask compassionate questions. Maybe you'll discover an avenue for healing that would otherwise have remained festering beneath the surface. Avoid touchy subjects. If they start to come up, divert, divert, divert!

Isolation, especially at holiday times, is a real and present danger for many. Perhaps you've lost a spouse or partner in the past year or recently been through a breakup. Perhaps your child and their family have moved so far away it's not practical to be together this year. Don't hesitate to pick up the phone, or write a card, or send a text message to a friend or family member. Or to your pastor! They'll be touched you are thinking of them, and even if they don't respond right away, you know that your expression of love reached them. Find organizations for which you can volunteer during these days. Our Thursday soup suppers are continuing, and we'll be serving the day after Christmas. Coming face to face with those who are in need binds us together and generates the healing promise of a new community.

Handling the Holidays

If you are experiencing prolonged depression, please seek the care of a doctor or therapist. With or without that skilled care, following are some spiritual techniques for beginning and ending each day that will help ground you in the peace of Christ that passes all understanding:

- When you wake: Trace a small cross on your lips and say, “O Lord, open my lips, and my mouth will declare your praise.” (Psalm 51:15; this is also how we begin the beautiful service of Morning Prayer.)
- When you are preparing to meet the new day: “Awake, my soul! Awake, harp and lyre! I myself will awaken the dawn. I will give thanks to you, O Lord, among the peoples; I will sing praise to you among the nations. For your steadfast love is greater than the heavens, and your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.” (Psalm 57:8-9)
- When you are moving through your day, recall the words of the ancient Jesus Prayer, often called “the prayer of the heart,” as often as you can: “Lord Jesus Christ, son of God, have mercy on me, a sinner.” You may shorten it as you choose; its most basic form has become “Lord, have mercy.” This lays the entirety of our need before our loving Savior. Some ancient seekers were known to have recited it thousands of times each day, for years.
- End the day with the spiritual practice of daily examen. As you are settling down for the night, ask yourself: When in this day was I aware of God’s presence? (Be as specific as you can.) When were my actions and choices in this day pleasing to God? When were my actions and choices not pleasing to God? Then, turn this all over into God’s care so that you may rest peacefully and awake to a new day and new hope.

I pray that these ideas will be of some solace to you as we move through Advent toward Christmas. “Let every heart prepare him room!”

Yours in the hope of Christ,

Pastor Nancy Raabe

STEPPING STONES

As 2024 draws to a close I am reminded about my first Christmas as Director at Stepping Stones. I think on our first Santa visit with help from Laura and Matt Slugg; laughter in the meeting room as we marveled over Santa's big belly and how amazing he was going to look for the kids. I think of the wonder and joy that was in each kid's eyes as they saw Santa for the first time and couldn't wait to tell him how good they had been all year long. Christmas is always a special time at Stepping Stones and, perhaps, because we're a little smaller this year it feels like that first Christmas with all the joy, love, and laughter that Christmas deserves.

We will spend our month with lots of spirit days like ugly sweater day, Christmas PJs and movies, cookies, and Christmas hats. Stepping Stones will be closed on 12/24, 12/25, and 12/31 and 1/1 for the holidays but we will be back on 1/2/25 for the New Year. From us to you we hope you have the Merriest of Christmases and the Happiest of New Years. Blessings to us all in 2025.

Jessica Moran, Director

Adopt-A-Family Christmas Project 2024

During the Advent season, we prepare for the birth of Jesus. Each Sunday, we light candles on the Advent Wreath –HOPE, PEACE, JOY, LOVE. As we prepare for our family gatherings, let's remember those families who may not be able to provide the basic necessities for their loved ones. The Giving in Service team invites you to help provide gifts to families in our area to allow them to share in the joy of Christmas. Again, this year we will be sharing our gifts with several families from Stepping Stones.

New this year, we would like to provide food for our families. We will collect food for their shelves for winter. Take a tag from the Christmas tree to provide the food item listed.

Angel gifts will be collected for the Hatfield Food Cupboards and our Adopted families. Take a list of items needed from the table near the display in the narthex. These items cannot be purchased with food stamps and are personal items needed by families. Your items may be brought to church anytime.

DUE date for both our Adopt-a-Family gifts and the Angel gifts is Sunday Dec. 15th. What a wonderful way to begin the Advent Season by giving to one of our families.

The Giving in Service Team – Jean Shaffer, Diane Ball, Carol MacDonald, Barb Watts, Cathy Farrell, Mary Jane Moyer, Kay Deussing, and Kay Stone

Angel Boxes

Once again, we are collecting personal care items for our Angel Box distributions at Christmas time. These items will go to our Adopt-A-Families and to the two Hatfield Food Cupboards. The Food Cupboards are experiencing continually increasing numbers of families requesting their help. Collection boxes will be in the Narthex through December 15th. Thank you in advance for your continued support.

Items needed include:

Paper towels	Toothpaste and toothbrushes
Toilet paper	Razors
Kleenex	Bar soap and Deodorant
Shampoo (please tighten all lids)	Feminine products

From Dee Mancuso: A big "Thank you to the Welca ladies for the recent visit and bringing me soup and flowers. Very much appreciated !"

Sweets for Sharing 2024

Calling all Cookie Makers! On December 11th WELCA and the INreach team will once again be putting together Christmas boxes of confections for our homebound and Grace staff. Please consider donating cookies (freshly made or store bought) or individually wrapped candies so that we can continue this much-loved tradition. We will be collecting these items at Grace in the narthex (until 12/11) and putting them together Wednesday evening Dec. 11th at Peggy & Bruce Schmidt's house. Thank you in advance for your generous offerings! Any questions OR to arrange a pickup or drop off of your donation, please call or email: carol.w.macdonald@gmail.com; 215-872-0472

MINISTER OF MUSIC search update

The Music Minister Search Committee has completed its work, and Council is making preparations to present an offer to a candidate. We sincerely thank the members of this committee for their diligence and commitment to this process over the past three months: Cathy Farrell, chair; with Barb Hess, Bob Reilly, Ken Seiler, and Harold Schaefer. An announcement will be forthcoming.

WELCA

I can't believe this is our last meeting for 2024; our meeting is December 4th. We will be writing out Christmas cards for the Homebound members which will be delivered with the cookies by the INreach committee, Sweets for Sharing. You don't need to bring cards, we have plenty. On December 1st after church, we will be putting our cards and the cards from the congregation together to go with the cookies. I really hope you can stay and help. Thank you, Barb Watts 🙏

THURSDAY SOUP SUPPERS

If you haven't experienced our Soup Suppers yet, we warmly invite you to attend. We regularly welcome members from the neighborhood along with members of Grace; there is always someone new each week. Soups are freshly made, and the bread is also fresh from Hearth Bakery. Stop in at 5:30 any Thursday to experience new community being formed. Make new friends and spread the word. Postcards to share are in the narthex.

THE BREAD DROP schedule for December is: 12/3/2024 Jess Moran; 12/10/2024 Priscilla Landis; 12/17/2024 Laura Kratz; NO BREAD DROP ON 12/24 BECAUSE OF CHRISTMAS EVE AND NO BREAD DROP ON 12/31 BECAUSE OF NEW YEAR'S EVE.

January schedule will resume as normal.

YOGA every Wednesday at 6:15 pm. Last class for this year is 12/18/24. We will resume 1/8/25.

Yoga is for all levels. This will be suitable for those with some yoga experience but also for anyone with little to none, as options will be offered for the various poses. The goal is to work on strength and flexibility gradually while gaining an ability to focus on breath and awareness.

WHERE: Grace Lutheran Church Fellowship Hall; COST: $7/class (checks can be made payable to Grace Lutheran Church); Contact: Kathy Stawasz with any questions (215.760.6297)

CONGREGATIONAL BUDGET MEETING

A congregational meeting will be held following the 10:30 service on Sunday, December 8, to approve the 2025 budget. Please be in attendance so that we can have a quorum and discussion.

Copies of the 2025 budget will be available later this month in the narthex.

EEC FOOD CUPBOARD

As we approach the Season of Giving, please know how much your gifts of food and household products are appreciated by others in our community. Each week, many families wait in all kinds of weather outside of Emmanuel for the doors to open so that they can shop for some basic needs. Janet Hague told us that "last month we hit a record of 101 non-duplicated households who shopped in October. Thank you for your continued faithfulness in helping us to help others."

Food items: Spaghetti Sauce, Tomato Paste, canned whole Potatoes, Pancake Syrup, Cake Mix and Icing, Brownie Mix

Household & Personal Care*: Toothpaste, Toilet Paper, Shampoo & Conditioner (PLEASE TIGHTEN ALL LIDS!)

Gift Cards: Grocery gift cards are always welcome and very helpful, especially ALDI & Giant!

Your non-perishable donations can be placed in our Grace narthex bins by the conference room, and they will be brought to the EEC when bins are full.

To our Soup Makers: all of your delicious contributions (53 quarts!) have allowed us to also share soup with our homebound.
